

Come and talk to Healthwatch Bromley - Your words will make a difference

During September and October, Healthwatch Bromley will be visiting different areas of our community in order to meet the public and explain about our role helping the voice of every individual to be heard when it comes to health and social care services. Come and speak to a member of the Healthwatch Bromley team, share your own experiences of health and social care, and tell us what you think is important to you.

We will be at the following locations:

- Tuesday 24th September - Council Chamber, Bromley Civic Centre BR1 3UK 6.30 pm - 7.00 pm
- Wednesday 25th September - Bromley Town Church 2.30 pm - 7.00 pm
- Thursday 26th September - Biggin Hill New Life Church TN16 3BB 7.00 pm - 8.30 pm
- Monday 30th September - City Gate Church, Beckenham BR3 1AA 7.00 pm - 8.30 pm
- Thursday 3rd October - Orpington Methodist Church BR6 9JH 7.00 pm - 8.30 pm
- Monday 7th October - Civic Centre BR1 3UH 7.00 pm - 8.30 pm
- Wednesday 9th October - Intu Bromley 9.00 am - 10.00 am

Notes

Healthwatch Bromley gives the people of Bromley a stronger voice to influence and challenge how health and social care services are provided. Healthwatch Bromley :

- listens to local people's views about their needs and experiences, and make sure these views are listened to by those setting up and delivering services;
- makes recommendations based on feedback to influence the way services are designed and delivered
- identifies priorities that are relevant to Bromley and looks at which groups and communities are not being heard and finds ways for them to be represented
- provides an information and signposting service about choices for local health and care services and how to access them
- passes information and recommendations to other local Healthwatch, Healthwatch England and the Care Quality Commission
