

Leaving a gift to help a local charity

Leaving a gift to Bromley Mencap means you will help to make a difference to the lives of disabled people of all ages, as well as their families and carers.

Your gift can help us provide:

- Our telephone advice line
- Respite and short breaks, childcare facilities, leisure and school holiday activities
- Help for older and mutual carers
- Our employment training and support to help disabled people find and sustain jobs leading to independence
- Buddies to help disabled young people with accessing community activities
- Independent living skills including cookery and money management for disabled people
- Advocacy to empower disabled people and carers

Bromley Mencap is an award-winning, independent charity providing a range of services and support to disabled children, disabled adults, carers and families.

A gift in your Will is a lasting legacy:

- £2,000 could run our Outdoors Activity Club for disabled people for 2 years
- £5,000 could run our monthly workshops for 30 older carers and a monthly peer support group for their disabled mutually caring sons and daughters for 1 year
- £10,000 could provide buddying for 20 young disabled people giving respite to the families for 1 year
- £40,000 could run a training and employment scheme for 20 disabled people and support them into volunteering, work placements and paid jobs for 1 year

There are different ways you can leave a gift as a legacy:

As a cash gift - this means leaving a fixed amount in your Will. This is a pecuniary legacy.

As a specific gift - this is leaving a named item such as a painting or piece of jewellery to us. This is a specific legacy.

As a share of your estate - after all debts and liabilities (funeral expenses, tax) have been deducted, you can leave the rest of your estate to one or more beneficiaries. You can also leave a share of your estate to a charity. This is a residuary gift.

We advise using a solicitor to make your Will, or change your existing Will. All gifts left to charity are exempt from Inheritance Tax.

Please remember to make your gift to:

BROMLEY MENCAP
Rutland House, 44 Masons Hill
Bromley, Kent BR2 9JG
(Registered Charity No: 800685)

Don't leave it to chance - make sure your Will is up to date and your gift is to BROMLEY MENCAP, otherwise it will go to national Mencap.
